

Biography:

Ann Hayward Walker, President, SEA Consulting Group

Former US Scientific Support Coordinator

Provided scientific support and coordination on 200+ oil and hazmat incidents

Stakeholder engagement and outreach, especially at regional and community levels and for dispersant decision making

On site risk communications support for subsistence fisheries on EVOS and aerials use of dispersants during Deepwater Horizon

Project manager for US industry risk communications study on ecological effects of dispersants in 1990s and current joint industry task force project on dispersant communications.

